Chapter 1 by Reagan Henderson

Camilla woke up to her phone alarm buzzing it's starlight zombie ringtone. "Rggghhhh," Camilla said getting out of bed. She stood up and got some clothes out. She put on her ragged jeans with chains, with gun and knife pockets, she put on a black long-sleeve t-shirt, an army sweat shirt, and combat boots. She put her slick, black-blue-red hair in a tight pony tail, and put on her zombie bracelet. "Cam! Time for school!" Camilla's mom called up the stairs. Camilla yelled back, "Coming!" Camilla rushed to grab her phone, and her backpack, but she didn't know that while hurrying, she missed grabbing her phone and accidentally spilled water near her phone.

As Camilla rushed out the door, she knew she was late for school but as she left, her mom left too, leaving everything else quite except for the ringtone of zombies from her phone. As the water made it's way toward her phone, the water dripped onto the cord, creating electricity, and flowing down/up the cord the water trickled into/onto the phone, which somehow, made a diagram of a zombie in Camilla's bedroom.

The zombie looked left to right, searching, and went through her bedroom.

"Bbbrrraaaaiinnnnsssss.....Raggghhhhhaagggghhhh.....nnnnngggg..." Said the zombie, trudging through her room.
